This article was published 4/3/2014 (2354 days ago), so information in it may no longer be current. Opinion The recent clash between Graham Bowie and Coun. Jeff Browaty was totally avoidable. Both show a complete and utter lack of professionalism, a complete absence of respect for the civil authority and a complete disinterest in how council functions. Bowie's latest attack on Browaty has no place in council chambers, let alone the town hall. The outburst on March 9 was completely out of character for Bowie. How could he behave this way with members of the public around? If he doesn't try to be professional, he should not seek
